

Holy Week & Easter at Peapack Reformed

Passion/Palm Sunday, April 9- 10 a.m. Worship

A day of change from the joyous welcoming of Jesus into Jerusalem to the solemn knowledge of what lies ahead for him in the coming week.

Regular worship will feature readings, hymns, prayers, and special music.

Maundy Thursday, April 13 at 7 p.m.

Commemorating the Last Supper, we will celebrate

Holy Communion around tables in Fellowship Hall.

Our sister congregation Pottersville Reformed will join us.

Good Friday, April 14

The sanctuary, stripped of all liturgical dressing, will be open all day for prayer and meditation. Every half hour, from noon until 3 p.m., a portion of the Passion narrative from the Gospel of John will be read, a hymn sung and prayer offered.

Easter Sunday, April 16 Sunrise Service

We will again join our sister congregation from Pottersville Reformed Church to greet the Day of Resurrection on a hilltop at a nearby farm. Meet at the Pottersville Reformed Church at 6 a.m.

A potluck breakfast in the Pottersville Community House will follow the service.

Glorious Easter Worship at 10 a.m.

Celebrate Easter with worship in the Peapack Reformed sanctuary, adorned with beautiful spring flowers and alive with music of choir, brass and organ.

The children will have fun at the annual Easter egg hunt.
